Last week after we had gone to press we noticed a "Marked copy" on our desk and soon learned that John Greenleaf Sanders had become editor and proprietor of the Garretson News of South Dakota. Mr. Sanders is well known in this county where he was born, learning the art preservative, worked as foreman in this office for one year, conducted a paper at Brownville, and married one of Nemaha county's intelligent school ma'ams. For the past three years he has held a position on the staff of the Aberdeen News and having carefully hoarded his earnings he is able to buy a paper. John is energetic and wide awake and The Granger wishes him abundant success.—Granger.

Rev. J. W. Sapp in both his sermons at Nemaha the Sunday after the Shubert carnival scored the amusement company and hoped Nemaha would never have such an outfit here. H. E. Williams, one of the leading merchants says he will never give a cent for another such carnival. John Colglazier, another merchant, says the only business men who were benefited by the presence of the amusement company were the saloons. The Shubert operator telegraphed to the operator at Nemaha the morning they came up here that they were coming and to have our people lock up their chicken coops and keep a watch on property, and extended his sympathy to us in the affliction, though brief, of their presence. And yet Dalby says they were perfect ladies and gentlemen.
